

I understand that a new broadcast service known as Low Power FM is being introduced which may affect the radio station I listen to. It is KLOVE and is the most awesome radio station ever. I know many people who listen to it and whose lives are positively affected by it. In a society of negativity and changing morals, it is vital that this station be maintained. Please help us keep our radio station, KLOVE.